

Topic B: fight against racism in sport

Introduction:

The racism is a very important issue to the world of sport because of the fact that there are lots of international tournaments that different countrys participate in like in the fifa world cup into others.

Background:

The racism is a problem that humanity has been taking it from hundreds of years since the beginning of the civilizations it goes from don't letting a person do a thing because he has a different skin or way of thinking to killing all the people that are not equal to you or your group

The racism can go by many scales from: religion to color of your skin.

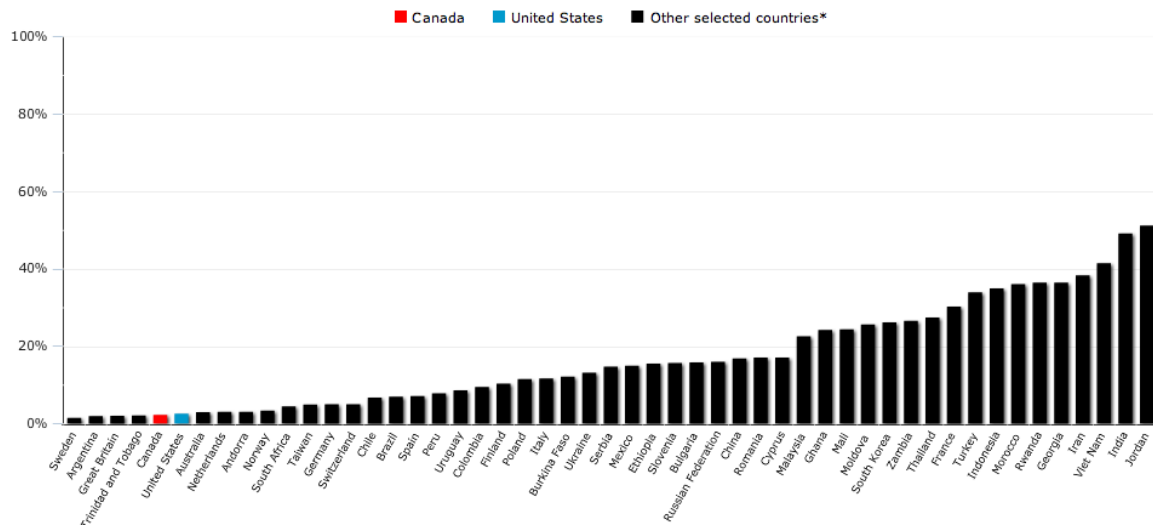

Basic definitions and concepts:

Racism-consists of both prejudice and discrimination based in social perceptions of biological differences between peoples. It often takes the form of social actions, practices or beliefs, or political systems that consider different races to be ranked as inherently superior or inferior to each other, based on presumed shared inheritable traits, abilities, or qualities. It may also hold that members of different races should be treated differently.

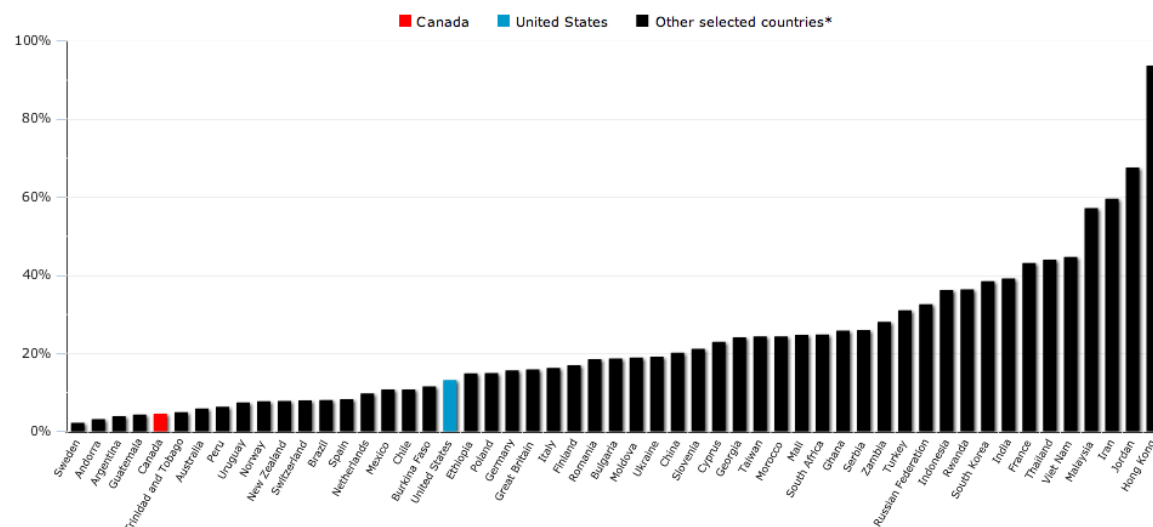

Anti racism policy: it's a way that international organizations like the U.N has been adapting and upgrading the fight against racism this is that if there's a racism act in a country or in a international event the international law will take the necessary actions to sancionate the act

The world with the racism:

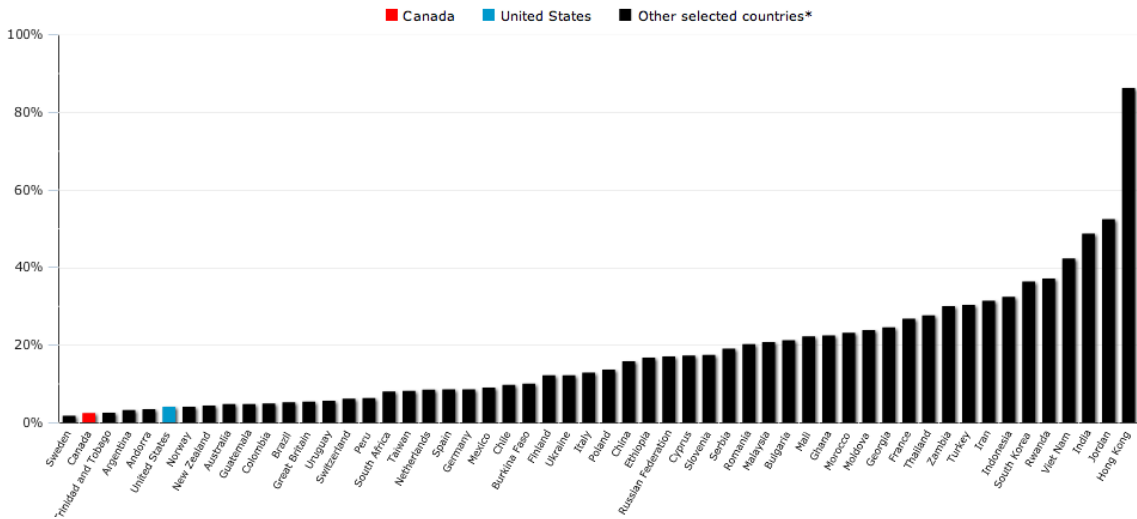

According to the World Values Survey, percentage of respondents that would NOT LIKE People of a different religion as neighbours
